

Aviv Peres

Curriculum Vitae

Profile

An experience Avid editor, worked on variety of television programmes.
Creative and enthusiastic.

Education

1992 – 1995: Camera Obscura School of Art, Department of Cinema and Television (Tel-Aviv, Israel)

Professional Experience

12 years as an editor on Avid non-linear editing systems.

Highly skilled with Avid Media Composer, Avid Adrenaline, Xpress Pro HD and Symphony.

Extensive knowledge of both offline and online procedures, colour grading, SD and HD editing.

Selected Projects

2007/8 – "British Gas Green Streets" (for Guardian Films) – a three part documentary film promoting environmental initiatives throughout Britain (Dir: Sara Nason).

2007 – "The Most Annoying Pop Songs [We Hate To Love]" (for Shine/BBC3) – a countdown of 100 classic-yet-irritating pop hits that stormed the music charts (Dir: Lyn Rowett, Exec. Prod: Steven D. Wright)

2006/7 – "I Was There: The People's Review 2006" (for Cheetah Television/ Endemol/ITV) – a one-hour programme looking back at the stories that made the news in 2006 using film clips shot by people who were there when it happened . Hosted by ITV News presenter Katie Derham (Dir/Prod: Alicia Kerr).

2006 – "The X-Factor" (for TalkbackThames/ITV) – insert VT's for the live broadcast show featuring the eight finalists (Dir: various).

2006 – "Home" (for Cheetah Television/Endemol/BBC2) – a 13x60min. interior design programme looking at various homes around Britain (Dir: various).

2006 – "Combat Club" [Series I and II] (for Lupus Films/Five) – a 13x30min. kids programme about martial arts (Dir: Sara Nason/Prod: Camilla Deakin, Ruth Fielding).

2005/6 – "Celebrity Shocking Moments of 2005" (for Shine/five) – a countdown of our celebrities most shocking and embarrassing moments (Exec. Prod: Steve D. Wright).

2005 – "Jordan and Peter: Marriage and Mayhem" (for Target Entertainment/ITV2) – Fly on the wall documentary series following the couple's ups and downs since they fell in love in the jungle.

2005 – "Julie Burchill's Reality TV Is Good For You" (for Shine/Sky One) – The Times columnist Julie Burchill asks the question, and gets some interesting answers (Exec. Prod: Steven D. Wright).

2005 – "The World's Greatest Supermodel" (for Shine/Five) – a two-hour show counting down the world's greatest Supermodels. Shortlisted for the FOCAL award, use of archive footage. (Dir: Suzy Ratner, Exec. Prod: Steven D. Wright).

2004/5 – "Who Are The Beckhams ?" (for Shine/Sky One) – a one-hour documentary about the Beckham's worst year in the media and the public eye. Presented by The Sun's Jane Moore (Exec. Prod: Steven D. Wright, Dir: Craig Brooks).

2004 – "Best of the Worst" (for BBC3) – a clip show featuring the funniest and weirdest sports blunders (Dir: Andy Harris).

2004 – "First Edition: Cars, Clones & Criminals" (for Screen Channel/ITV London) –a 30 min. documentary about the crime of vehicle cloning, won the Gold Remy Award at the 2004 Houston Worldfest documentary festival (Dir/Prod. Peter Lowe).

2002/2003 – "Neighbours From Hell" [Programme One & Two] (for Carlton/ITV) – one-hour documentaries featuring long-lasting disputes among neighbours throughout Britain (Dir: Richard Lightbody).